

By a CONSOLIDATION OF THE NASHVILLE UNION AND AMERICAN and the DISPATCH and by the united support of the Union and American and the DISPATCH in the entire country; and in furtherance of this object, we have reduced the price of our paper to one cent per copy, and we are enabled to present a Newspaper which is not surpassed in this city or State.

In the Political Interests of the People.

The UNION AND DISPATCH, as heretofore, will take the Constitution and laws for its guide; and in the discussion of all the new and important questions and issues arising out of the extraordinary situation in which the country is placed, it will adhere to the principles announced by the founders and exponents of our government and institutions. It will not shrink from the most vigorous and honest discussion of the merits and demerits of the various candidates for office, and it will not shrink from the most vigorous and honest discussion of the merits and demerits of the various candidates for office.

Our Manufacturing and Domestic Interests.

We shall constantly administer the Southern people to self-reliance, and shall do so in the most judicious and effective manner. We shall do so in the most judicious and effective manner. We shall do so in the most judicious and effective manner.

Our Financial and Commercial Column.

Every department of business has an immediate interest in the markets of the country, and it is the duty of the press to keep the public informed of the state of the markets. We shall do so in the most judicious and effective manner. We shall do so in the most judicious and effective manner.

Upon the Subject of Agriculture.

And kindred topics, we shall also give an extensive variety of valuable and interesting matter. We shall do so in the most judicious and effective manner. We shall do so in the most judicious and effective manner.

For the Family Circle.

And for the special pleasure and profit of the young, each week will give a general literary and religious miscellany. We shall do so in the most judicious and effective manner. We shall do so in the most judicious and effective manner.

Decisions of the Supreme Court.

In view of the importance of the legal profession, and the general public interest attaching to the many new questions coming before the judicial tribunals, we will publish all the official decisions of the Supreme Court, from official sources, which may be relied upon as strictly trustworthy.

REDUCTION OF RATES.

gratified at being able to state that very large increase in the number of our daily and tri-weekly subscribers enables us to reduce the price of our paper to one cent per copy, and we are enabled to present a Newspaper which is not surpassed in this city or State.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION WILL BE IN ADVANCE.

DAILY $100

WEEKLY $5.00

And for shorter periods at the same rates.

Our paper will be sent gratuitously to any one who sends us a copy of the paper.

Union and Dispatch.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 22, 1868.

Largest Circulation in City and State.

GRANT AND REEFER.

The charge which has just been made by an able military writer in the New York World against the famous "report" of Gen. Grant, in the most striking possible manner, has been confirmed by the fact that the report was not only a fabrication, but a fabrication of a most extraordinary character. The report was not only a fabrication, but a fabrication of a most extraordinary character.

For, not content with branding General Butler as a blackhead in relation to the campaign in Virginia, General Grant further accused him of insubordination in relation to the campaign in North Carolina. The commander of the army, who had no authority from him to accompany the expedition sent from James River against Fort Fisher, much less to assume control of that expedition. General Grant proceeded to be unable to find any other excuse for Gen. Butler's conduct on this occasion than a possible desire on his part to see the effect of his powder-sharp.

And now we learn through an accredited spokesman and friend of General Grant himself that in all this Gen. Grant meant absolutely nothing whatever. Here are the very words of this amazing revelation. It is very Mr. George Willard who makes the report and Grant speaks:

"He frankly disavowed any intention to reflect upon the military conduct or position of Gen. Butler as Commander of the Army of the James by his report about the Army of the James being bottled up."

Wendell Phillips has declared that Gen. Grant "cannot stand up before a bottle without falling down." Have we here simply an illustration of this unfortunate proclivity? The people of this country, we fancy, could more easily forgive the physical position of a man of Gen. Grant's position before a "bottle" containing any one of the many enemies which men put in their mouths to take away their brains, than the moral prostration before a bottle which happens to contain Maj. Gen. B. F. Butler.

Nothing has been said or written of Gen. Grant, by any of those who are politically hostile to him, which involves any reflection upon his honesty, his integrity, his character, or his ability. He is a man of high character, and his honesty and integrity are beyond question. He is a man of high character, and his honesty and integrity are beyond question.

"But the truth is that it was the joint desire of both Gen. Grant and Gen. Butler, as soon as it was seen by each how little the other was to be adjusted, that the adjustment should be delayed till after the close of the impeachment trial. The reason of this was that it was constantly expected that the defense would put Gen. Grant upon the stand with the view of impeaching him with a General Court-examination, and as it was seen by both that this would be required to defend him while there from any untoward result, it was thought advisable that any change of their personal relations should be effected at that time."

The person to whom we are directly indebted for this disclosure of small cunning, and of what we may fairly call an unexampled act of moral auto-cannibalism, winds up his story with these words, which, if they be not the abridgment of grim sarcasm, are certainly the culmination of cynical impudence:

THE CROPS IN ENGLAND.

Foreign advices of the 13th inst. confirm the previous intelligence as to the abundance of the English wheat harvest, notwithstanding the severe drought during July. Cutting commenced early in the southern districts; by the second or third week of July, the harvest was almost general, and at last accounts, the majority of the crop had been "well got in"; only the scarcity of labor had retarded the harvest operations in some districts. The dry weather had enabled farmers to secure their crops in excellent condition, and the autumn is everywhere favorably spoken of as the weighty part of the year.

"Taking into account the large acreage of wheat sown, and the heavy yield per acre when compared with last year, the total crop will be much in excess of 1867. The yield of wheat and peas will be very good, although some of the accounts are very discouraging. We have seen some good yields of oats; but the crop generally is not so good as last year. The yield of barley and peas will be very good, although some of the accounts are very discouraging.

"This would seem to be very summarily disposed of the allegations on this side, that there would be a large deficiency of wheat. It also confirms the correctness of the cable telegrams, published some ten days ago, stating that the crop had turned out well, and would be more than an average one. In view of these facts, it is not probable that 'operators for a rise' in this market will be able, any longer, to turn to account a deficit, which is now shown to not exist."

In regard to hay and green crops, however, it is equally certain that the drought has been followed by very calamitous effects; and it is morally certain, therefore, that large importations will have to be made from this side, to make good the deficiency. (We already shipping hay freely.)

The time harvesters throughout Europe—and especially in England and France—which are the chief importers of breadstuffs, leave it very doubtful whether any large proportion of the immense surplus of cereals, which the West will have for sale, will be able to find a profitable market abroad. The South—at one time a large purchaser of breadstuffs, and provisions at the West and Northwest—is beginning to raise a sufficiency of both for her own use, and this double restriction—the abundance abroad and the sufficiency at the South—will necessarily render it exceedingly difficult for the people of the grain-growing States, West and Northwest, to dispose of their crops except at prices considerably below those they have been in the habit of getting recently—prices, too, which were well warranted by the high rate of wages, and by the increased cost, which the farmer has to pay for all kinds of commodities that enter into his cost.

Nothing has been said or written of Gen. Grant, by any of those who are politically hostile to him, which involves any reflection upon his honesty, his integrity, his character, or his ability. He is a man of high character, and his honesty and integrity are beyond question. He is a man of high character, and his honesty and integrity are beyond question.

"But the truth is that it was the joint desire of both Gen. Grant and Gen. Butler, as soon as it was seen by each how little the other was to be adjusted, that the adjustment should be delayed till after the close of the impeachment trial. The reason of this was that it was constantly expected that the defense would put Gen. Grant upon the stand with the view of impeaching him with a General Court-examination, and as it was seen by both that this would be required to defend him while there from any untoward result, it was thought advisable that any change of their personal relations should be effected at that time."

The person to whom we are directly indebted for this disclosure of small cunning, and of what we may fairly call an unexampled act of moral auto-cannibalism, winds up his story with these words, which, if they be not the abridgment of grim sarcasm, are certainly the culmination of cynical impudence:

"This terminates the matter in a manner most honorable to Gen. Grant and Gen. Butler, and most necessarily not only give great relief to the loyal public, but may impart fresh impulse to the Republican campaign."

ILLINOIS.

Correspondence of the New York World.

ODESS, Ill., August 10.—I drop you a hasty line from this brick little Western city, lying far out upon the Grand Prairie, and bearing the name of the good old Scandinavian god. But what would the old Norsemen, or their infallible god, have thought of the sight I have seen here—two great lines of railroad, crossing at many right angles, and far beyond the distance of twenty miles, in the distance long trains of heavily-laden cars approaching to the point of crossing.

No Presidential canvass since 1840 has excited so much interest, and attracted so many thousands of people, as the one now being held in this State. On Saturday I attended a popular outpouring at a little station east of Olen, called Noble, in Richland County, and saw a large number of people, and many of them were very intelligent. The people were out in large numbers from the whole surrounding country. They came by delegation, and many of them were very intelligent. The people were out in large numbers from the whole surrounding country.

"This would seem to be very summarily disposed of the allegations on this side, that there would be a large deficiency of wheat. It also confirms the correctness of the cable telegrams, published some ten days ago, stating that the crop had turned out well, and would be more than an average one. In view of these facts, it is not probable that 'operators for a rise' in this market will be able, any longer, to turn to account a deficit, which is now shown to not exist."

In regard to hay and green crops, however, it is equally certain that the drought has been followed by very calamitous effects; and it is morally certain, therefore, that large importations will have to be made from this side, to make good the deficiency. (We already shipping hay freely.)

The time harvesters throughout Europe—and especially in England and France—which are the chief importers of breadstuffs, leave it very doubtful whether any large proportion of the immense surplus of cereals, which the West will have for sale, will be able to find a profitable market abroad. The South—at one time a large purchaser of breadstuffs, and provisions at the West and Northwest—is beginning to raise a sufficiency of both for her own use, and this double restriction—the abundance abroad and the sufficiency at the South—will necessarily render it exceedingly difficult for the people of the grain-growing States, West and Northwest, to dispose of their crops except at prices considerably below those they have been in the habit of getting recently—prices, too, which were well warranted by the high rate of wages, and by the increased cost, which the farmer has to pay for all kinds of commodities that enter into his cost.

Nothing has been said or written of Gen. Grant, by any of those who are politically hostile to him, which involves any reflection upon his honesty, his integrity, his character, or his ability. He is a man of high character, and his honesty and integrity are beyond question. He is a man of high character, and his honesty and integrity are beyond question.

"But the truth is that it was the joint desire of both Gen. Grant and Gen. Butler, as soon as it was seen by each how little the other was to be adjusted, that the adjustment should be delayed till after the close of the impeachment trial. The reason of this was that it was constantly expected that the defense would put Gen. Grant upon the stand with the view of impeaching him with a General Court-examination, and as it was seen by both that this would be required to defend him while there from any untoward result, it was thought advisable that any change of their personal relations should be effected at that time."

The person to whom we are directly indebted for this disclosure of small cunning, and of what we may fairly call an unexampled act of moral auto-cannibalism, winds up his story with these words, which, if they be not the abridgment of grim sarcasm, are certainly the culmination of cynical impudence:

"This terminates the matter in a manner most honorable to Gen. Grant and Gen. Butler, and most necessarily not only give great relief to the loyal public, but may impart fresh impulse to the Republican campaign."

TENNESSEE NEWS.

Coke.—Within the past ten days considerable coke has been put on our market. We believe that eighty cents per bushel is the highest price paid for it in Cleveland, Banner, and other markets.

Coke.—Within the past ten days considerable coke has been put on our market. We believe that eighty cents per bushel is the highest price paid for it in Cleveland, Banner, and other markets. The coke is of a very good quality, and is well adapted for use in the iron and steel industry.

Coke.—Within the past ten days considerable coke has been put on our market. We believe that eighty cents per bushel is the highest price paid for it in Cleveland, Banner, and other markets. The coke is of a very good quality, and is well adapted for use in the iron and steel industry.

Coke.—Within the past ten days considerable coke has been put on our market. We believe that eighty cents per bushel is the highest price paid for it in Cleveland, Banner, and other markets. The coke is of a very good quality, and is well adapted for use in the iron and steel industry.

Coke.—Within the past ten days considerable coke has been put on our market. We believe that eighty cents per bushel is the highest price paid for it in Cleveland, Banner, and other markets. The coke is of a very good quality, and is well adapted for use in the iron and steel industry.

Coke.—Within the past ten days considerable coke has been put on our market. We believe that eighty cents per bushel is the highest price paid for it in Cleveland, Banner, and other markets. The coke is of a very good quality, and is well adapted for use in the iron and steel industry.

Coke.—Within the past ten days considerable coke has been put on our market. We believe that eighty cents per bushel is the highest price paid for it in Cleveland, Banner, and other markets. The coke is of a very good quality, and is well adapted for use in the iron and steel industry.

Coke.—Within the past ten days considerable coke has been put on our market. We believe that eighty cents per bushel is the highest price paid for it in Cleveland, Banner, and other markets. The coke is of a very good quality, and is well adapted for use in the iron and steel industry.

Coke.—Within the past ten days considerable coke has been put on our market. We believe that eighty cents per bushel is the highest price paid for it in Cleveland, Banner, and other markets. The coke is of a very good quality, and is well adapted for use in the iron and steel industry.

Coke.—Within the past ten days considerable coke has been put on our market. We believe that eighty cents per bushel is the highest price paid for it in Cleveland, Banner, and other markets. The coke is of a very good quality, and is well adapted for use in the iron and steel industry.

TENNESSEE COAL.

RAILROAD COMPANY.

Nashville, Tenn., Aug. 6, '68.

THE TENNESSEE COAL AND RAILROAD COMPANY has established the following prices for the city and Railroad for the sale of the following:

"SEWANE COAL,"
Coke and Lumber.
A conference for the city and Railroad, for the sale of the following:

NOTICE.
HAVING BECOME AGENTS FOR THE sale of Tennessee Sewanee Coal, we will sell all orders promptly. The prices are very low.

LUMBER.
We will also take orders for the sale of the following:

BURIAL LOTS.
MT. OLIVET CEMETERY.
FOR SALE BY
A. NELSON & CO.,
AGENTS.

St. Louis University!
THE THIRTY-NINTH ANNUAL SESSION OF STUDIES IN THE
ST. LOUIS UNIVERSITY
WILL OPEN
Monday, September 7, 1868.

THIS INSTITUTION IS THE OLDEST seat of learning in the West, having been Established in 1829.
The Course of Studies offers every facility for acquiring a thorough Classical and Commercial Education.
For Catalogue, etc., apply to
REV. F. H. STUNTERBERG, S. J.,
President St. Louis University, St. Louis, Mo.,
J. 20313.

Notice Extraordinary.
THE UNDERSIGNED, IN CONSEQUENCE of the promise of the time, being unable to make the payment now due upon his place situated in all to about Fifteen Hundred Dollars, and which must shortly be met in order to enable him to remain in the place,
he is compelled to sell
50 Feet Front by 100 Feet
Deep of the Property,
Together with a Mammoth
Six Hundred and Fifty Dollar Piano.
The Fifty feet of ground is located on Division street, between the Franklin Pike and the Old Hempstead road, just south of the Chattanooga road. It is a very desirable place for a residence, and at the present time for cash, without a great sacrifice, I have decided to make the sale.

A CHANCE SALE.
In order that a chance may be within the reach of every one, have been Tickets at Two Dollars.
Each ticket shall entitle the holder to a chance in the drawing of the grand prize, and the prize is a very valuable one.
The manner, time and place of drawing will be advertised, and no one who has a ticket holder an opportunity of being present.
The tickets can be obtained of the following:
Messrs. J. C. Collier's Book Store, Union Church and Cherry streets, at either of which places tickets can also be secured.
The property, both ground and piano, can be seen by calling on the undersigned, or by making the sale.

NASHVILLE.

Commercial Insurance Co.

OFFICE, 10 NORTH COLLEGE ST.

FIRE AND MARINE RISKS TAKEN AT FAIR RATES. J. C. MCNALLY, President,
E. D. HICKS, Secretary.

NASHVILLE.

OFFICE.

JNO. LUMSDEN, President,
J. C. MCNALLY, Secretary,
JOSEPH W. ALLEN, Secretary.

Pure Robertson County
WHISKY!

Wm. Moore, Jno. Woodard, J. L. Green.

MOORE, WOODARD & CO.

Rectifiers of Whisky.

BONDED WAREHOUSE KEEPERS.

SPRINGFIELD.

ROBERTSON COUNTY, TENNESSEE.

WE HAVE NOW IN STOCK

Four Hundred Barrels Whisky, and
COPPER DISTILLED.

Fifty Barrels Pure Apple Brandy.

Two Hundred Barrels

Double Refined Rectified Whisky.

Which we offer at the lowest prices.

FOR CASH.

Orders from a distance promptly filled, and

satisfaction guaranteed.

Prices reduced to meet the times.

MOORE, WOODARD & CO.

SPRINGFIELD, Tenn.

INSURANCE.

THE TENNESSEE

Marine and Fire

INSURANCE COMPANY.

Under the new charter, it is now doing business

at No. 34 NORTH COLLEGE STREET.

Next door to corner of Union Street.

JOSEPH W. ALLEN, President.

A. W. BUTLER, Secretary.

John M. Allen, J. C. McNally, J. L. Green,

Daniel P. Carter, H. J. Green,

G. W. Henderson, A. W. Allen,

Wm. Moore, J. C. McNally, J. L. Green.

JOSEPH W. ALLEN, President.

A. W. BUTLER, Secretary.

John M. Allen, J. C. McNally, J. L. Green,

Daniel P. Carter, H. J. Green,

G. W. Henderson, A. W. Allen,

Wm. Moore, J. C. McNally, J. L. Green.

JOSEPH W. ALLEN, President.

A. W. BUTLER, Secretary.

John M. Allen, J. C. McNally, J. L. Green,

Daniel P. Carter, H. J. Green,

G. W. Henderson, A. W. Allen,

Wm. Moore, J. C. McNally, J. L. Green.

JOSEPH W. ALLEN, President.

A. W. BUTLER, Secretary.

John M. Allen, J. C. McNally, J. L. Green,

Daniel P. Carter, H. J. Green,

G. W. Henderson, A. W. Allen,

Wm. Moore, J. C. McNally, J. L. Green.

JOSEPH W. ALLEN, President.

A. W. BUTLER, Secretary.

John M. Allen, J. C. McNally, J. L. Green,

Daniel P. Carter, H. J. Green,

G. W. Henderson, A. W. Allen,

Wm. Moore, J. C. McNally, J. L. Green.

JOSEPH W. ALLEN, President.

A. W. BUTLER, Secretary.

John M. Allen, J. C. McNally, J. L. Green,

Daniel P. Carter, H. J. Green,

G. W. Henderson, A. W. Allen,

Wm. Moore, J. C. McNally, J. L. Green.

JOSEPH W. ALLEN, President.

A. W. BUTLER, Secretary.

John M. Allen, J. C. McNally, J. L. Green,

Daniel P. Carter, H. J. Green,

G. W. Henderson, A. W. Allen,

Wm. Moore, J. C. McNally, J. L. Green.

JOSEPH W. ALLEN, President.

A. W. BUTLER, Secretary.

John M. Allen, J. C. McNally, J. L. Green,

Daniel P. Carter, H. J. Green,

G. W. Henderson, A. W. Allen,

Wm. Moore, J. C. McNally, J. L. Green.

JOSEPH W. ALLEN, President.

A. W. BUTLER, Secretary.

John M. Allen, J. C. McNally, J. L. Green,

Daniel P. Carter, H. J. Green,

G. W. Henderson, A. W. Allen,

Wm. Moore, J. C. McNally, J. L. Green.

A FIRE POLICY

With the well tried and reliable

State Insurance Company

NASHVILLE.

OFFICE.

JNO. LUMSDEN, President,
J. C. MCNALLY, Secretary,
JOSEPH W. ALLEN, Secretary.

Pure Robertson County
WHISKY!

Wm. Moore, Jno. Woodard, J. L. Green.

MOORE, WOODARD & CO.

Rectifiers of Whisky.

BONDED WAREHOUSE KEEPERS.

SPRINGFIELD.

ROBERTSON COUNTY, TENNESSEE.

WE HAVE NOW IN STOCK

Four Hundred Barrels Whisky, and
COPPER DISTILLED.

Fifty Barrels Pure Apple Brandy.

Two Hundred Barrels

Double Refined Rectified Whisky.

Which we offer at the lowest prices.

FOR CASH.

Orders from a distance promptly filled, and

satisfaction guaranteed.

Prices reduced to meet the times.

MOORE, WOODARD & CO.

SPRINGFIELD, Tenn.

INSURANCE.

THE TENNESSEE

Marine and Fire

INSURANCE COMPANY.

Under the new charter, it is now doing business

at No. 34 NORTH COLLEGE STREET.

Next door to corner of Union Street.